

Paul Fitzgerald

Paul Fitzgerald is the Executive Director of Friends of Big Marsh and a lifelong southside cyclist. Paul believes in building strong community partnerships in order to best utilize all resources to improve the quality of life in the Calumet Region. Previously, Paul worked for eight years at Working Bikes in Little Village where he piloted new programs which utilized bicycles as tools of empowerment for local residents in need and partner organizations in Africa, Central America, and Fiji. Paul is a graduate of University of Illinois at Chicago, a 2017 Civic Leadership Academy Fellow, and a 2020 Chicago United for Equity Fellow.

